

Job Description

We are a Spa / Wellness center focused on infants from, helping facilitate their own development through exploration and play. We provide a sanctuary to ease neonates into their new world and support their overall development, while also supporting parents as they adjust to their new roles. A visit to our wellness center includes both water and massage therapy for babies from birth to 9 months. Thus, we prioritize baby care above all other things.

We are looking for neonatal nurses, pediatric nurses, midwives, or nurses that have experience with babies to join our team. We are aware that dealing with babies is a high-stress job. Thus, we are interested in hiring nurses who handle stress well and who have a positive attitude that will comfort worried parents. The therapist should hold a qualification in nursing or physiotherapy. However, a minimum requirement would be a qualification in Pediatric First Aid.
